(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement; and (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference into this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities: The undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this Registration Statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser: (i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering

Subject to the Companies Acts, all or any of the special rights for the time being attached to any class of shares for the time being issued may from time to time (whether or not the Company is being wound up) be altered or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than seventy five percent of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a Resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of such shares voting in person or by proxy. To any such separate general meeting, all the provisions of these Bye-Laws as to general meetings of the Company shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two or more persons holding or representing by proxy any of the shares of the relevant class, that every holder of shares of the relevant class shall be entitled on a poll to one vote for every such share held by him and that any holder of shares of the relevant class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll; provided, however, that if the Company or a class of Shareholders shall have only one Shareholder, one Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall constitute the necessary quorum.
6. The special rights conferred upon the holders of any shares or class of shares shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided in the rights attaching to or the terms of issue of such shares, be deemed to be altered by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

SHARES

7. Subject to the provisions of these Bye-Laws, the unissued shares of the Company (whether forming part of the original capital or any increased capital) shall be at the disposal of the Board, which may offer, allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of them to such persons, at such times and for such consideration and upon such terms and conditions as the Board may determine.

8. The Board may in connection with the issue of any shares exercise all powers of paying commission and brokerage conferred or permitted by law.
9. Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon trust and the Company shall not be bound by or required in any way to recognise (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or (except only as otherwise provided in these Bye-Laws, or by law) any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.

CERTIFICATES

10. The preparation, issue and delivery of certificates shall be governed by the Companies Acts. In the case of a share held jointly by several persons, delivery of a certificate to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.
11. If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed it may be replaced without fee but on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity and to payment of the costs and out of pocket expenses of the Company in investigating such evidence and preparing such indemnity as the Board may think fit and, in case of defacement, on delivery of the old certificate to the Company.

12. All certificates for share or loan capital or other securities of the Company (other than letters of allotment, scrip certificates and other like documents) shall, except to the extent that the terms and conditions for the time being relating thereto otherwise provide, be issued under the Seal. The Board may by resolution determine, either generally or in any particular case, that any signatures on any such certificates need not be autographic but may be affixed to such certificates by some mechanical means or may be printed thereon or that such certificates need not be signed by any persons.

LIEN

13. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys, whether presently payable or not, called or payable, at a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms of issue of such share in respect of such share, and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on every share (other than a fully paid share) standing registered in the name of a Shareholder, whether singly or jointly with any other person, for all the debts and liabilities of such Shareholder or his estate to the Company, whether the same shall have been incurred before or after notice to the Company of any interest of any person other than such Shareholder, and whether the time for the payment or discharge of the same shall have actually arrived or not, and notwithstanding that the same are joint debts or liabilities of such Shareholder or his estate and any other person, whether a Shareholder or not. The Company's lien on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon. The Board may at any time, either generally or in any particular case, waive any lien that has arisen or declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Bye-Law.

14. The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board may think fit, any share on which the Company has a lien but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the sum presently payable and giving notice of the intention to sell in default of such payment, has been served on the holder for the time being of the share.
15. The net proceeds of sale by the Company of any shares on which it has a lien shall be applied in or towards payment or discharge of the debt or liability in respect of which the lien exists so far as the same is presently payable, and any residue shall (subject to a like lien for debts or liabilities not presently payable as existed upon the share prior to the sale) be paid to the person who was the holder of the share immediately before such sale. For giving effect to any such sale the Board may authorise some person to transfer the share sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the share and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.

CALLS ON SHARES

16. The Board may from time to time make calls upon the Shareholders in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the par value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the terms of issue thereof made payable at a date fixed by or in accordance with such terms of issue, and each Shareholder shall (subject to the Company serving upon him at least fourteen days notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine.

17. A call may be made payable by instalments and shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising the call was passed.
18. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.
19. If a sum called in respect of the share shall not be paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate as the Board may determine, but the Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
20. Any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable on allotment or at any date fixed by or in accordance with such terms of issue, whether on account of the nominal amount of the share or by way of premium, shall for all the purposes of these Bye-Laws be deemed to be a call duly made, notified and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable and, in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these Bye-Laws as to payment of interest, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
21. The Board may on the issue of shares differentiate between the allottees or holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

22. If a Shareholder fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

23. The notice shall name a further day (not being less than 14 days from the date of the notice) on or before which, and the place where, the payment required by the notice is to be made and shall state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call is made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited. The Board may accept the surrender of any share liable to be forfeited hereunder and, in such case, references in these Bye-Laws to forfeiture shall include surrender.
24. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls or instalments and interest due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
25. When any share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be served upon the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share; but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice as aforesaid.
26. A forfeited share shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and may be sold, re-offered or otherwise disposed of either to the person who was, before forfeiture, the holder thereof or entitled thereto or to any other person upon such terms and in such manner as the Board shall think fit, and at any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Board may think fit.

27. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall thereupon cease to be a Shareholder in respect of the forfeited shares but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture were presently payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares with interest thereon at such rate as the Board may determine from the date of forfeiture until payment, and the Company may enforce payment without being under any obligation to make any allowance for the value of the shares forfeited.
28. An affidavit in writing that the deponent is a Director or the Secretary and that a share has been duly forfeited on the date stated in the affidavit shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The Company may receive the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale, re-allotment or disposition thereof and the Board may authorise some person to transfer the share to the person to whom the same is sold, re-allotted or disposed of, and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the forfeiture, sale, re-allotment or disposal of the share.

REGISTER OF SHAREHOLDERS

29. The Secretary shall establish and maintain the Register at the Registered Office in the manner prescribed by the Companies Acts. Unless the Board otherwise determines, the Register shall be open to inspection in the manner prescribed by the Companies Acts between 10.00 a.m. and 12.00 noon on every working day. Unless the Board so determines, no Shareholder or intending Shareholder shall be entitled to have entered in the Register any indication of any trust or any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share and if any such entry exists or is permitted by the Board it shall not be deemed to abrogate any of the provisions of Bye-Law 9.

- ⁶29A. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, if the Board considers it necessary or appropriate, the Company may establish and maintain a local or branch register at such location outside Bermuda as the Board thinks fit and, while the issued share capital of the Company is, with the consent of the Board, listed on any stock exchange in any place outside Bermuda, the Company shall keep a branch register in the place where the Company's shares are listed.

REGISTER OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

30. The Secretary shall establish and maintain a register of the Directors and Officers as required by the Companies Acts. The register of Directors and Officers shall be open to inspection in the manner prescribed by the Companies Acts between 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon on every working day.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

31. Subject to the Companies Acts and to such of the restrictions contained in these Bye-Laws as may be applicable, any Shareholder may transfer all or any of his shares by an instrument of transfer in the usual common form or in any other form which the Board may approve.
32. The instrument of transfer of a share shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and where any share is not fully-paid, the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof. All instruments of transfer when registered may be retained by the Company. The Board may, in its absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor, decline to register any transfer of any share which is not a fully-paid share. The Board may also decline to register any transfer unless:-

- (1) the instrument of transfer is duly stamped (if required by law) and lodged with the Company, accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
- (2) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share; and
- (3) where applicable, the permission of the Bermuda Monetary Authority with respect thereto has been obtained.

Subject to any directions of the Board from time to time in force, the Secretary may exercise the powers and discretions of the Board under this Bye-Law and Bye-Laws 31 and 33.

33. If the Board declines to register a transfer it shall, within three months after the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged, send to the transferee notice of such refusal.

- 733A (1) The Board may, in its absolute discretion, at any time and from time to time transfer any share upon the Principal Register to any branch register or any share on any branch register to the Principal Register or any other branch register.
- (2) Unless the Board otherwise agree (which agreement may be on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Board in its absolute discretion may from time to time stipulate, and which agreement it shall, without giving any reason therefor, be entitled in its absolute discretion to give or withhold) no shares on the Principal Register shall be transferred to any branch register nor shall shares on any branch register be transferred to the Principal Register or any other branch register and all transfers and other documents of title shall be lodged for registration, and registered, in the case of any shares on a branch register, at the relevant Registration Office, and, in the case of any shares on the Principal Register, at the transfer office where the Principal Register is kept. Unless the Board otherwise agrees, all transfers and other documents of title shall be lodged for registration with, and registered at, the relevant Registration Office.

- (3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Bye-Law, the Company shall as soon as practicable and on a regular basis record in the Principal Register all transfers of shares effected on any branch register and shall at all times maintain the Principal Register in all respects in accordance with the Companies Act.
- 34. Subject to the Companies Acts, the Company may charge such reasonable fee as may be determined by the Board from time to time for registering any transfer, probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, distringas or stop notice, order of court or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to any share, or otherwise making an entry in the Register relating to any share.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

- 35. In the case of the death of a Shareholder, the survivor or survivors, where the deceased was a joint holder, and the estate representative, where he was sole holder, shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares; but nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased holder (whether the sole or joint) from any liability in respect of any share held by him solely or jointly with other persons. For the purpose of this Bye-Law, estate representative means the person to whom probate or letters of administration has or have been granted in Bermuda or, failing any such person, such other person as the Board may in its absolute discretion determine to be the person recognised by the Company for the purpose of this Bye-Law.

36. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death of a Shareholder or otherwise by operation of applicable law may, subject as hereafter provided and upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board as to his entitlement, either be registered himself as the holder of the share or elect to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof. If the person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he shall elect to have his nominee registered, he shall signify his election by signing an instrument of transfer of such share in favour of his nominee. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Bye-Laws relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfer of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or instrument of transfer as aforesaid as if the death of the Shareholder or other event giving rise to the transmission had not occurred and the notice or instrument of transfer was an instrument of transfer signed by such Shareholder.
37. A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death of a Shareholder or otherwise by operation of applicable law shall (upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board as to his entitlement) be entitled to receive and may give a discharge for any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share, but he shall not be entitled in respect of the share to receive notices of or to attend or vote at general meetings of the Company or, save as aforesaid, to exercise in respect of the share any of the rights or privileges of a Shareholder until he shall have become registered as the holder thereof. The Board may at any time give notice requiring such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and, if the notice is not complied with within sixty days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of the shares until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

38. Subject to any directions of the Board from time to time in force, the Secretary may exercise the powers and discretions of the Board under Bye-Laws 35, 36 and 37.

INCREASE OF CAPITAL

39. The Company may from time to time increase its capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such par value as the Company by Resolution shall prescribe.
40. The Company may, by the Resolution increasing the capital, direct that the new shares or any of them shall be offered in the first instance either at par or at a premium or (subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts) at a discount to all the holders for the time being of shares of any class or classes in proportion to the number of such shares held by them respectively or make any other provision as to the issue of the new shares.
41. The new shares shall be subject to all the provisions of these Bye-Laws with reference to lien, the payment of calls, forfeiture, transfer, transmission and otherwise.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

42. The Company may from time to time by Resolution:-

- (1) divide its shares into several classes and attach thereto respectively any preferential, deferred, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions;
- (2) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger par value than its existing shares;
- (3) sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller par value than is fixed by its memorandum, so, however, that in the sub-division the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;
- (4) make provision for the issue and allotment of shares which do not carry any voting rights;
- (5) cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the Resolution in that behalf, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled; and
- (6) change the currency denomination of its share capital.

Where any difficulty arises in regard to any division, consolidation, or sub-division under this Bye-Law, the Board may settle the same as it thinks expedient and, in particular, may arrange for the sale of the shares representing fractions and the distribution of the net proceeds of sale in due proportion amongst the Shareholders who would have been entitled to the fractions, and for this purpose the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares representing fractions to the purchaser thereof, who shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.

43. Subject to the Companies Acts and to any confirmation or consent required by law or these Bye-Laws, the Company may by Resolution from time to time convert any preference shares into redeemable preference shares.

REDUCTION OF CAPITAL

44. Subject to the Companies Acts, its memorandum and any confirmation or consent required by law or these Bye-Laws, the Company may from time to time by Resolution authorise the reduction of its issued share capital or any share premium or contributed surplus account in any manner.
45. In relation to any such reduction, the Company may by Resolution determine the terms upon which such reduction is to be effected including in the case of a reduction of part only of a class of shares, those shares to be affected.

GENERAL MEETINGS AND WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

46. (1) The Board shall convene and the Company shall hold general meetings as Annual General Meetings in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Acts at such times and places as the Board shall appoint. The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, and shall, when required by the Companies Acts, convene general meetings other than Annual General Meetings which shall be called Special General Meetings.
- ⁸(2) (A) Subject to the Companies Acts, at any Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting of Shareholders, any proposals by Shareholders whether in relation to the nomination for election of Directors or otherwise (“Proposals”) shall be considered only if advance notice thereof has been timely given as provided herein and such Proposals or nominations are otherwise proper for consideration under the Companies Acts and these Bye-Laws. Notice of any Proposal to be presented by any Shareholder at any general meeting of Shareholders shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Company at its principal place of business not less than 75 nor more than 90 days prior to the date of the general meeting; provided, however, that if the date of the general meeting is first publicly announced or disclosed (in a public filing or otherwise) less than 85 days prior to the date of the general meeting, such advance notice shall be given not more than ten days after such date is first so announced or disclosed. Public notice shall be deemed to have been given more than 85 days in advance of an Annual General Meeting if the Company shall have previously disclosed, in these Bye-laws or otherwise, that the Annual General Meeting in each year is to be held on a determinable date, unless and until the Board determines to hold the Annual General Meeting on a different date.

- (B) Any Shareholder who gives notice of any such Proposal shall deliver therewith the text of the Proposal to be presented and a brief written statement of the reasons why such Shareholder favors the Proposal and setting forth such Shareholder’s name and address, the number and class of all shares of each class of shares of the Company registered in the name of as well as beneficially owned by such Shareholder and any material interest of such Shareholder in the Proposal (other than as a Shareholder). Any Shareholder who gives notice of a Proposal to nominate any person for election as a Director shall also deliver with such notice a statement in writing setting forth the name of the person to be nominated, the number and class of all shares registered in the name of as well as beneficially owned by such person, such person's signed consent to serve as a Director if elected,

- (C) The chairman of the general meeting, in addition to making any other determinations that may be appropriate to the conduct of the general meeting, shall determine whether such notice has been duly given and shall direct that Proposals and nominees not be considered if such notice has not been given. The decision of the chairman on such matters shall be final and conclusive.
- (D) PROVIDED THAT, this Bye-law 46(2) shall not apply to any Proposal which is within the scope of Sections 79 and 80 of the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda (as amended from time to time).

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

47. An Annual General Meeting shall be called by not less than 5 days notice in writing and a Special General Meeting shall be called by not less than 5 days notice in writing. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, day and time of the meeting, and, the nature of the business to be considered. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in any manner permitted by Bye-Laws 120 and 121 to all Shareholders other than such as, under the provisions of these Bye-Laws or the terms of issue of the shares they hold, are not entitled to receive such notice from the Company and to any Director or Resident Representative who or which has delivered a written notice upon the Registered Office requiring that such notice be sent to him or it.

Notwithstanding that a meeting of the Company is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Bye-Law, it shall be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:-

- (1) in the case of a meeting called as an Annual General Meeting, by all the Shareholders entitled to attend and vote thereat;
- (2) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority in number of the Shareholders having the right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 percent in nominal value of the shares giving that right.

48. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting or (in cases where instruments of proxy are sent out with the notice) the accidental omission to send such instrument of proxy to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting or such instrument of proxy by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

49. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business, but the absence of a quorum shall not preclude the appointment, choice or election of a chairman which shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting. Save as otherwise provided by these Bye-Laws, at least two Shareholders present in person or by proxy and ⁹holding shares representing at least fifty percent (50%) of the total voting rights of all the Shareholders having the right to vote at such meeting and entitled to vote shall be a quorum for all purposes; provided, however, that if the Company or a class of Shareholders shall have only one Shareholder, one Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall constitute the necessary quorum.
50. If within five minutes (or such longer time as the chairman of the meeting may determine to wait) after the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to such other day and such other time and place as the chairman of the meeting may determine and at such adjourned meeting two Shareholders present in person or by proxy and holding shares representing at least ¹⁰thirty-three and one-third percent (33 1/3%) of the total voting rights of all of the Shareholders having the right to vote at such meeting shall be a quorum provided that if the Company or a class of Shareholders shall have only one Shareholder, one Shareholder present in person or by proxy shall constitute the necessary quorum. The Company shall give not less than 5 days notice of any meeting adjourned through want of a quorum and such notice shall state that the sole Shareholder or, if more than one, two Shareholders present in person or by proxy holding shares representing at least ¹¹33 1/3% of the total voting rights of all of the Shareholders having the right to vote at such meeting shall be a quorum.

¹⁰ Bye-Law 50 amended on 12 Jan 2001 and 14 Dec 2001

51. A meeting of the Shareholders or any class thereof may be held by means of such telephone, electronic, ¹²internet (to the extent expressly permitted by the Companies Acts) or other communication facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other simultaneously and instantaneously and participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.
52. Each Director upon giving the notice referred to in Bye-Law 47 above, and the Resident Representative, if any, shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting of the Company.
53. The Chairman (if any) of the Board or, in his absence, the President shall preside as chairman at every general meeting. If there is no such Chairman or President, or if at any meeting neither the Chairman nor the President is present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or if neither of them is willing to act as chairman, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to act or if one Director only is present he shall preside as chairman if willing to act. If no Director is present, or if each of the Directors present declines to take the chair, the persons present and entitled to vote on a poll shall elect one of their number to be chairman.
54. The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting except business which might lawfully have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for three months or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting.

¹¹ Bye-Law 50 amended on 14 Dec 2001

¹² Bye-Law 51 amended on 12 Jan 2001

55. Save as expressly provided by these Bye-Laws, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

VOTING

56. Save where a greater majority is required by the Companies Acts or these Bye-Laws, any question proposed for consideration at any general meeting shall be decided on by a simple majority of votes cast.
57. At any general meeting, a Resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands or on the withdrawal of any other demand for a poll) a poll is demanded by:-
- (1) the chairman of the meeting; or
 - (2) at least three Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy; or
 - (3) any Shareholder or Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy and holding between them not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Shareholders having the right to vote at such meeting; or
 - (4) a Shareholder or Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy holding shares conferring the right to vote at such meeting, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than one tenth of the total sum paid up on all such shares conferring such right.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person or any of the persons making it at any time prior to the declaration of the result. Unless a poll is so demanded and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the chairman that a Resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or not carried by a particular majority or lost shall be final and conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded for or against such Resolution.

58. If a poll is duly demanded, the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the Resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
59. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken in such manner and either forthwith or at such time (being not later than three months after the date of the demand) and place as the chairman shall direct. It shall not be necessary (unless the chairman otherwise directs) for notice to be given of a poll.
60. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded and it may be withdrawn at any time before the close of the meeting or the taking of the poll, whichever is the earlier.
- ¹³61. Subject to any special rights, privileges or restrictions as to voting for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, at any general meeting on a show of hands every Shareholder who is present in person or by a duly authorised corporate representative or by a duly appointed proxy, shall have one vote, and on a poll, every Shareholder present in person or by a duly authorised corporate representative or by a duly appointed proxy, shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder which is fully paid up (but so that no amount paid up or credited as paid up on a share in advance of calls or installments shall be treated for the purposes of this Bye-Law as paid up on the share).

¹³ New Bye-Law 61 adopted on 14 Dec 2001

62. A person entitled to more than one vote on a poll need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
63. In the case of an equality of votes at a general meeting, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of such meeting shall ¹⁴be entitled to have second or casting vote .
64. In the case of joint holders of a share, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the Register in respect of the joint holding.
65. A Shareholder who is a patient for any purpose of any statute or applicable law relating to mental health or in respect of whom an order has been made by any Court having jurisdiction for the protection or management of the affairs of persons incapable of managing their own affairs may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his receiver, committee, curator bonis or other person in the nature of a receiver, committee or curator bonis appointed by such Court and such receiver, committee, curator bonis or other person may vote on a poll by proxy, and may otherwise act and be treated as such Shareholder for the purpose of general meetings.

¹⁴ Bye-Law 63 amended on 14 Dec 2001

66. No Shareholder shall, unless the Board otherwise determines, be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the Company have been paid.

67. If:

- (1) any objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter; or,
- (2) any votes have been counted which ought not to have been counted or which might have been rejected; or,
- (3) any votes are not counted which ought to have been counted, the objection or error shall not vitiate the decision of the meeting or adjourned meeting on any Resolution unless the same is raised or pointed out at the meeting or, as the case may be, the adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any Resolution if the chairman decides that the same may have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the chairman on such matters shall be final and conclusive.

PROXIES AND CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVES

68. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney authorised by him in writing or, if the appointor is a corporation, either under its seal or under the hand of an officer, attorney or other person authorised to sign the same.
69. Any Shareholder may appoint a standing proxy or (if a corporation) representative by depositing at the Registered Office a proxy or (if a corporation) an authorisation and such proxy or authorisation shall be valid for all general meetings and adjournments thereof or, Resolutions in writing, as the case may be, until notice of revocation is received at the Registered Office. Where a standing proxy or authorisation exists, its operation shall be deemed to have been suspended at any general meeting or adjournment thereof at which the Shareholder is present or in respect to which the Shareholder has specially appointed a proxy or representative. The Board may from time to time require such evidence as it shall deem necessary as to the due execution and continuing validity of any such standing proxy or authorisation and the operation of any such standing proxy or authorisation shall be deemed to be suspended until such time as the Board determines that it has received the requested evidence or other evidence satisfactory to it.
70. Subject to Bye-Law 69, the instrument appointing a proxy together with such other evidence as to its due execution as the Board may from time to time require, shall be delivered at the Registered Office (or at such place as may be specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of any adjournment or, in either case or the case of a written Resolution, in any document sent therewith) prior to the holding of the relevant meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or, in the case of a poll taken subsequently to the date of a meeting or adjourned meeting, before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, or, in the case of a written Resolution, prior to the effective date of the written Resolution and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

71. Instruments of proxy shall be in any common form or in such other form as the Board may approve and the Board may, if it thinks fit, send out with the notice of any meeting or any written Resolution forms of instruments of proxy for use at that meeting or in connection with that written Resolution. The instrument of proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any amendment of a written Resolution or amendment of a Resolution put to the meeting for which it is given as the proxy thinks fit. The instrument of proxy shall unless the contrary is stated therein be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates.
72. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal, or revocation of the instrument of proxy or of the authority under which it was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity or revocation shall have been received by the Company at the Registered Office (or such other place as may be specified for the delivery of instruments of proxy in the notice convening the meeting or other documents sent therewith) one hour at least before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting, or the taking of the poll, or the day before the effective date of any written Resolution at which the instrument of proxy is used.
73. Subject to the Companies Acts, the Board may at its discretion waive any of the provisions of these Bye-Laws related to proxies or authorisations and, in particular, may accept such verbal or other assurances as it thinks fit as to the right of any person to attend and vote on behalf of any Shareholder at general meetings or to sign written Resolutions.

APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

74. The number of Directors shall be such number not less than ¹⁵three (3) nor more than nine (9) as determined by the Board of Directors. Commencing from the 12th day of January 2001, the Directors shall be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as reasonably possible, as determined by the Board, with the initial term of office of the first class of such Directors to expire at the first Annual General Meeting thereafter, the initial term of office of the second class of such Directors to expire at the second Annual General Meeting thereafter and the initial term of office of the third class of such Directors to expire at the third Annual General Meeting thereafter, with each class of Directors to hold office until they are re-elected or their successors have been duly elected and qualified. At each Annual General Meeting following such initial classification and election, Directors elected to succeed the Directors whose terms expire at such Annual General Meeting shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the Annual General Meeting in the third year following the year of their election and until they are re-elected or their successors have been duly elected and qualified. If the number of Directors is changed, any increase or decrease shall be apportioned among the classes so as to maintain or attain a number of Directors in each class as nearly equal as reasonably possible, but no decrease in the number of Directors may shorten the term of any incumbent Director. No Director may be removed except for cause.

¹⁵ Bye-Law 74 amended on 12 Jan 2001, 14 Dec 2001 and 27 August 2004

In the event that the holders of any class or series of shares of the Company shall be entitled, voting separately as a class, to elect any Directors, then the number of Directors that may be elected by such holders shall be in addition to the number fixed pursuant to this Bye-law and, except as otherwise expressly provided in the terms of such class or series, the terms of the Directors elected by such holders shall expire at the Annual General Meeting next succeeding their election without regard to the classification of the remaining Directors.

This Bye-law 74 may not be amended, modified or repealed except by the affirmative vote of the Shareholders holding shares representing at least ¹⁶sixty percent (60%) of the total voting rights of all the Shareholders having the right to vote at such general meeting.

¹⁷75. Without prejudice to the power of the Company by Resolution in pursuance of any of the provisions of these Bye-Laws to appoint any person to be a Director, the Board, so long as a quorum of Directors remains in office, shall have power at any time and from time to time to appoint any individual to be a Director so as to fill a casual vacancy or appoint additional Directors up to the maximum number of Directors determined by the Company. Where:

- (a) the casual vacancy arises as a result of the vacation of office of an existing Director (“outgoing Director”), the term of office for such Director (“incoming Director”) shall be the remaining term of the outgoing Director; or

¹⁶ Bye-Law 74 amended on 14 Dec 2001

¹⁷ Bye-Law 75 amended on 14 Dec 2001

- (b) in respect of addition(s) to the Board, the term of office for any such incoming Director shall be until the next Annual General Meeting where he shall be eligible for re-election and subject to rotation in accordance with Bye-law 74.
76. The Company may in a Special General Meeting called for that purpose remove a Director,¹⁸ but only for cause, provided notice of any such meeting shall be served upon the Director concerned not less than 14 days before the meeting and he shall be entitled to be heard at that meeting. Any vacancy created by the removal of a Director at a Special General Meeting may be filled at the meeting by the election of another Director in his place or, in the absence of any such election, by the Board.

RESIGNATION AND DISQUALIFICATION OF DIRECTORS

77. The office of a Director shall be vacated upon the happening of any of the following events:
- (1) if he resigns his office by notice in writing delivered to the Registered Office or tendered at a meeting of the Board;
 - (2) if he becomes of unsound mind or a patient for any purpose of any statute or applicable law relating to mental health and the Board resolves that his office is vacated;
 - (3) if he becomes bankrupt under the laws of any country or compounds with his creditors;
 - (4) if he is prohibited by law from being a Director; or
 - (5) if he ceases to be a Director by virtue of the Companies Acts or is removed from office pursuant to these Bye-Laws.

¹⁸ Bye-Law 76 amended on 12 Jan 2001

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

78. A Director may appoint and remove his own Alternate Director. Any appointment or removal of an Alternate Director by a Director shall be effected by depositing a notice of appointment or removal with the Secretary at the Registered Office, signed by such Director, and such appointment or removal shall become effective on the date of receipt by the Secretary. Any Alternate Director may be removed by resolution of the Board. Subject as aforesaid, the office of Alternate Director shall continue until the next annual election of Directors or, if earlier, the date on which the relevant Director ceases to be a Director. An Alternate Director may also be a Director in his own right and may act as alternate to more than one Director.
79. The Board may also cause the voting power conferred by the shares in any other company held or owned by the Company to be exercised in such manner in all respects as it thinks fit, including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing the Directors or any of them to be directors or officers of such other company, or voting or providing for the payment of remuneration to the directors or officers of such other company.

83. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and these Bye-Laws and to any directions given by the Company by Resolution, the Board shall manage the business of the Company and may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and incorporating the Company and may exercise all the powers of the Company. No alteration of these Bye-Laws and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this Bye-Law shall not be limited by any special power given to the Board by these Bye-Laws and a meeting of the Board at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all the powers, authorities and discretions for the time being vested in or exercisable by the Board.
84. The Board may from time to time appoint one or more of its body to be a managing director, joint managing director or an assistant managing director or to hold any other employment or executive office with the Company for such period and upon such terms as the Board may determine and may revoke or terminate any such appointments. Any person so appointed shall receive such remuneration (if any) (whether by way of salary, commission, participation in profits or otherwise) as the Board may determine, and either in addition to or in lieu of his remuneration as a Director.

99. All acts done by the Board or by any committee or by any person acting as a Director or member of a committee or any person duly authorised by the Board or any committee, shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any member of the Board or such committee or person acting as aforesaid or that they or any of them were disqualified or had vacated their office, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Director, member of such committee or person so authorised.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER PAYMENTS

105. The Board may from time to time declare dividends or distributions out of contributed surplus to be paid to the Shareholders according to their rights and interests including such interim dividends as appear to the Board to be justified by the position of the Company. The Board, in its discretion, may determine that any dividend shall be paid in cash or shall be satisfied, subject to Bye-Law 113, in paying up in full shares in the Company to be issued to the Shareholders credited as fully paid or partly paid or partly in one way and partly the other. The Board may also pay any fixed cash dividend which is payable on any shares of the Company half yearly or on such other dates, whenever the position of the Company, in the opinion of the Board, justifies such payment.

²¹ New Bye-Law 104(3) inserted on 14 Dec 2001

106. Except insofar as the rights attaching to, or the terms of issue of, any share otherwise provide:-
- (1) all dividends or distributions out of contributed surplus may be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up on the shares in respect of which the dividend or distribution is paid, and an amount paid up on a share in advance of calls may be treated for the purpose of this Bye-Law as paid-up on the share;
 - (2) dividends or distributions out of contributed surplus may be apportioned and paid pro rata according to the amounts paid-up on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend or distribution is paid.
107. The Board may deduct from any dividend, distribution or other moneys payable to a Shareholder by the Company on or in respect of any shares all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in respect of shares of the Company.
108. No dividend, distribution or other moneys payable by the Company on or in respect of any share shall bear interest against the Company.
109. Any dividend, distribution or interest, or part thereof payable in cash, or any other sum payable in cash to the holder of shares may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post addressed to the holder at his address in the Register or, in the case of joint holders, addressed to the holder whose name stands first in the Register in respect of the shares at his registered address as appearing in the Register or addressed to such person at such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant shall, unless the holder or joint holders otherwise direct, be made payable to the order of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the order of the holder whose name stands first in the Register in respect of such shares, and shall be sent at his or their risk and payment of the cheque or warrant by the bank on which it is drawn shall constitute a good discharge to the Company. Any one of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends, distributions or other moneys payable or property distributable in respect of the shares held by such joint holders.

110. Any dividend or distribution out of contributed surplus unclaimed for a period of six years from the date of declaration of such dividend or distribution shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company and the payment by the Board of any unclaimed dividend, distribution, interest or other sum payable on or in respect of the share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof.
111. The Board may also, in addition to its other powers, direct payment or satisfaction of any dividend or distribution out of contributed surplus wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid-up shares or debentures of any other company, and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution or dividend the Board may settle it as it thinks expedient, and in particular, may authorise any person to sell and transfer any fractions or may ignore fractions altogether, and may fix the value for distribution or dividend purposes of any such specific assets and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Shareholders upon the footing of the values so fixed in order to secure equality of distribution and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Board provided that such dividend or distribution may not be satisfied by the distribution of any partly paid shares or debentures of any company without the sanction of a Resolution.

RESERVES

112. The Board may, before recommending or declaring any dividend or distribution out of contributed surplus, set aside such sums as it thinks proper as reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose of the Company and pending such application may, also at such discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments as the Board may from time to time think fit. The Board may also without placing the same to reserve carry forward any sums which it may think it prudent not to distribute.

CAPITALIZATION OF PROFITS

113. The Board may, from time to time resolve to capitalise all or any part of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund which is available for distribution or to the credit of any share premium account and accordingly that such amount be set free for distribution amongst the Shareholders or any class of Shareholders who would be entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions, on the footing that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares in the Company held by such Shareholders respectively or in payment up in full of unissued shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company, to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid amongst such Shareholders, or partly in one way and partly in the other, provided that for the purpose of this Bye-Law, a share premium account may be applied only in paying up of unissued shares to be issued to such Shareholders credited as fully paid and provided further that any sum standing to the credit of a share premium account may only be applied in crediting as fully paid shares of the same class as that from which the relevant share premium was derived.

114. Where any difficulty arises in regard to any distribution under the last preceding Bye-Law, the Board may settle the same as it thinks expedient and, in particular, may authorise any person to sell and transfer any fractions or may resolve that the distribution should be as nearly as may be practicable in the correct proportion but not exactly so or may ignore fractions altogether, and may determine that cash payments should be made to any Shareholders in order to adjust the rights of all parties, as may seem expedient to the Board. The Board may appoint any person to sign on behalf of the persons entitled to participate in the distribution any contract necessary or desirable for giving effect thereto and such appointment shall be effective and binding upon the Shareholders.

RECORD DATES

115. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Bye-Laws, ²²the Board may fix any date as the record date for any dividend, distribution, allotment or issue and for the purpose of identifying the persons entitled to receive notices of ²³and/or attend and vote at general meetings. Any such record date may be on or at any time before or after any date on which such dividend, distribution, allotment or issue is declared, paid or made or such notice is despatched.

SHARE OPTION PLAN

1. Establishment, Purpose and Effective Date

ChipMOS TECHNOLOGIES (Bermuda) LTD. (the "Company") has established the ChipMOS TECHNOLOGIES (Bermuda) LTD. Share Option Plan 2006 effective upon shareholders approval thereof (the "Plan"). The purpose of the Plan is to enable the Company and its affiliates to stimulate the efforts of directors, officers and employees toward the achievement of objectives established by the Company and to encourage the employees to identify their long-term interests with those of the Company's shareholders.

2. Plan Administration

- (a) Administration. The Plan shall be administered by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, by any committee of the Board authorized by it for such purpose (the "Committee"). The Board may vest in the Committee all or any part of its authority, as described herein, with respect to the administration of the Plan.
- (b) Authority. The Board (or the Committee) shall have full power and authority to interpret the Plan and any Option agreements, to establish, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan and any option award agreements, to determine the form and content of options (the "Options") to purchase the Company's Common Shares, par value US$0.01 (the "Shares"), to be issued under the Plan, to provide for conditions and assurances deemed necessary or advisable to protect the interests of the Company and to make all other determinations necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan.

The Board (or the Committee) shall determine, in its discretion, the directors, officers and employees to whom, and the time or times at which, Options shall be granted, the number of Shares to be subject to each Option, the duration of each Option, the exercise price of each Option, and the time or times within which (during the term of such Option) all or portions of each Option may be exercised, except as otherwise provided for herein.

The Board (or the Committee) may delegate to officers or employees of the Company and to service providers, the authority, subject to such terms as the Board (or the Committee) may determine, to administer and effect the Plan and any Options according to their terms.

- (c) Decisions Final and Conclusive. The determination of the Board (or the Committee) as to any question arising under the Plan, including questions of construction and interpretation, shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all persons, including the Company, its shareholders and persons having any interests in the Options. In making its determinations, the Board (or the Committee) may conclusively rely on outside experts for, among other things, the valuation of any property used for payment of the exercise price of any Options. No member of the Board (or the Committee) shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any award.

3. Eligibility

All directors, officers and employees of the Company and its affiliates shall be eligible to receive Options.

4. Shares Subject to the Plan

- (a) Number. The aggregate number of Shares that may be issued pursuant to Options under the Plan is 7,000,000. Such shares may consist, in whole or in part, of authorized but unissued Shares of the Company which are not reserved for any other purpose.
- (b) Adjustment in Capitalization. If there is any change (increase or decrease) in the outstanding Shares by reason of a stock dividend, recapitalization, merger, consolidation, stock split, combination or exchange of Shares, or otherwise, the aggregate number of Shares available under the Plan, the number and kind of Shares subject to each outstanding Option and the exercise price (as described in Section 5(d) hereof) thereof may, in the sole discretion of the Board (or the Committee), be appropriately adjusted so as fairly and equitably to reflect such change; provided, however, that fractional Shares shall be rounded down to the nearest whole Share.

5. Options

- (a) Grant of Options. The Board (or the Committee) may from time to time at its discretion, subject to the provisions of the Plan, grant Options to such directors, officers and employees of the Company and its affiliates as it shall determine. The Board (or the Committee) shall specify at the time of grant whether the option is an incentive stock option (“Incentive Stock Option”) within the meaning of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”), as amended, or a non-statutory stock option.
- (b) Option Award Agreement. Each Option granted under the Plan shall be evidenced by a written option award agreement (the “Option Award Agreement”) setting forth the terms under which the Option is granted, including the date or dates on which, or during which, it becomes exercisable in whole or in part, and such conditions and restrictions as the Board (or the Committee) shall deem appropriate.
- (c) Duration of Options. Each Option shall be of the duration specified in the Option Award Agreement pursuant to which it is granted. All rights to exercise an Option shall expire not later than (i) ten years from the date on which such Option is granted and (ii) five years from the date on which such Option is granted if the holder of the Option owns more than 10% of the combined total voting power of the Company at the time the Option is granted.
- (d) Exercise Price. The exercise price of each Option shall be determined by the Board (or the Committee) in its sole discretion, but in no event shall the per share exercise price of (i) any non-statutory stock option be less than the nominal or par value of the Company’s Shares, or (ii) any Incentive Stock Option be less than the fair market value of a Company Share on the date of grant of such Option (or 110% of such fair market value if the holder of the Option owns more than 10% of the total combined voting power of the Company at the time the Option is granted).

6. Exercise of Options

- (a) Written Notice. In order to exercise an Option, in whole or in part, the holder of the Option shall give written notice to the Company. The date on which the Company receives such notice shall be considered as the date such Option was exercised as to the Shares specified in such notice.
- (b) Payment. Simultaneously with the delivery to the Company of the notice of exercise of an Option, the holder of the Option shall pay to the Company the sum of (i) the aggregate exercise price of all Shares pursuant to such exercise of the Option, or, if the Board (or Committee) shall permit the payment of such price in installments, on such terms and conditions as it may determine, (ii) an amount equal to the federal, state and local taxes, if any, required to be withheld and paid by the Company as a result of such exercise (iii) an amount equal to any other expenses to be paid by the holder of the Option upon exercise as set forth in the Option Award Agreement. Such payment shall be made (i) in cash, (ii) by certified check, or (iii) as otherwise specified in the Option Award Agreement or permitted by the Board (or the Committee), including at the sole discretion of the Board (or the Committee), in property. The Board (or the Committee), in its sole discretion, may permit the holder of the Option the right to transfer Shares acquired upon exercise of a part of an Option in payment of the exercise price payable upon immediate exercise of a further part of the Option. In addition, the Board (or the Committee) may permit the holder of the Option to satisfy the obligation with respect to the taxes required to be withheld by the Company by having the Company withhold Shares the fair market value (as determined by the Board (or the Committee)) of which is equal to such taxes and any fractional amount shall be settled in cash).
- (c) Issuance of Shares. As soon as possible after receipt of payment and satisfaction of any other conditions set forth in the Option Award Agreement by the holder of the Option, the Company shall deliver, free and clear of any transfer taxes payable in connection therewith, to the holder of the Option the specified number of Shares in book-entry or certificated form.
- (d) No Privileges of a Shareholder. The holder of an Option shall not be deemed a shareholder with respect to any Shares covered by the Option until such Shares shall have been delivered upon exercise of the Option.

7. No Transfer of Options

An Option is not transferable by the holder thereof otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and is exercisable, during the lifetime of the Option holder, only by such holder. Notwithstanding the immediately preceding sentence, the Board (or the Committee) may, subject to terms and conditions it may specify, permit an Option holder to transfer any non-statutory option granted to him pursuant to the Plan to one or more of his family members or to trusts or other entities established for the benefit of the Option holder and/or one or more of such family members. For purposes of the Plan, the term "family members" shall mean the Option holder's spouse, issue and grandchildren (including adopted and step children).

8. Termination of Employment

Upon termination of an Option holder's employment for any reason, all Options granted to such Option holder shall immediately be canceled, except as otherwise provided in the Option Award Agreement.

9. No Right of Employment

Nothing contained in the Plan herein or in any Option Award Agreement shall interfere with or limit in any way the rights of the Company or any affiliate to terminate the employment of the holder of an Option at any time, or confer upon any holder any right to continue in the employ of the Company or any affiliate.

10. Change in Control

Each Option that is not exercisable in full shall be deemed immediately fully vested and fully exercisable upon a Change in Control.

“Change in Control” shall mean the occurrence of any one of the following events: (i) any “person” (as such term is defined in Section 3(a)(9) of the Exchange Act and as used in Sections 13(d)(3) and 14(d)(2) of the Exchange Act) is or becomes a “beneficial owner” (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing 50% or more of the combined voting power of the Company’s then outstanding securities eligible to vote for the election of the Board of Directors (the “Company Voting Securities”); provided, however, that the event described in this paragraph (i) shall not be deemed to be a Change in Control by virtue of any of the following acquisitions: (A) by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, (B) by any employee benefit plan sponsored or maintained by the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or (C) by any person approved in advance to acquire such amount of Company’s voting securities by the Board of Directors, a majority of whom are, and have been, Incumbent Directors (as defined below) for at least two years; (ii) during any period of not more than two years, individuals who constitute the Board of Directors of the Company as of the beginning of the period (the “Incumbent Directors”) cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board of Directors, provided that any person becoming a director subsequent to the beginning of the period whose election or nomination for election was approved by a vote (either by a specific vote or by approval of the proxy statement of the Company in which such person is named as a nominee for director, without objection to such nomination) of at least three-quarters of the Incumbent Directors who remain on the Board of Directors, including those directors whose election or nomination for election was previously so approved, shall also be deemed to be an Incumbent Director; provided, however, that no individual initially elected or nominated as a director of the Company as a result of an actual or threatened election contest with respect to directors or any other actual or threatened solicitation of proxies or consents by or on behalf of any person other than the Board of Directors shall be deemed to be an Incumbent Director; (iii) the consummation of a merger, consolidation, share exchange or similar form of corporate reorganization of the Company (or any such type of transaction involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries that requires the approval of the Company’s shareholders, whether for the transaction or the issuance of securities in the transaction or otherwise) (a “Business Combination”), unless such Business Combination is approved in advance by the Board of Directors, a majority of whom are, and have been, Incumbent Directors for at least two years; or (iv) the shareholders of the Company approve a plan of complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company or the sale of all or substantially all of its assets.

11. Duration of the Plan

The Plan shall remain in effect for ten years from its effective date unless earlier terminated by the Board; but Options theretofore granted may extend beyond the date of termination in accordance with the provisions of the Plan.

12. Amendment

The Board may amend the Plan from time to time in such respects as it deems advisable, provided that no amendment shall materially and adversely affect the rights of any holder of an Option with respect to such Option without the Option holder's consent.

13. Laws, Rules and Regulations

The Plan, the grant and exercise of Options thereunder and the obligation of the Company to sell and deliver Shares pursuant to such Options shall be subject to all applicable laws, rules and regulations, and to any required approvals by any governmental agencies or national securities exchanges.

The Plan shall be governed by the laws of Bermuda, without reference to principles of conflict of laws.

- 3. This opinion is confined to and given on the basis of the laws of Bermuda as at the date hereof. We have not investigated, and we do not express or imply any opinion on, the laws of any other jurisdiction and we have assumed that no other such laws will affect the opinions stated herein.
- 4. We have assumed:-

- (a) authenticity, accuracy and completeness of all documents submitted to us as originals and the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to us as certified, conformed, notarised, faxed or photostatic copies;
- (b) the genuineness of all signatures, seals and chops (if any) on the Registration Statement and all other documents which we have examined;

- (d) that any factual statements made in the Registration Statement are true, accurate and complete;
- (e) that there are no provisions of the laws or regulations of any jurisdiction other than Bermuda which would be contravened by the execution or delivery of the Plan or which would have any implication in relation to the opinion expressed herein and that, in so far as any obligation under, or action to be taken under, the Plan is required to be performed or taken in any jurisdiction outside Bermuda, the performance of such obligation or the taking of such action will constitute a valid and binding obligation of each of the parties thereto under the laws of that jurisdiction and will not be illegal by virtue of the laws of that jurisdiction;
- (f) that the records which were the subject of the Company Search were complete and accurate at the time of such search and disclosed all information which is material for the purposes of this opinion and such information has not since the date of the Company Search been materially altered;

- (i) that there have been no amendments to the Memorandum of Association or the Bye-Laws of the Company as referred to above;
- (j) that the Company has entered into its obligations under the Plan in good faith for the purpose of carrying on its business and that, at the time it did so, there were reasonable grounds for believing that the transactions contemplated by the Plan would benefit the Company;
- (k) that the final form of the Registration Statement which we have examined for the purposes of this opinion does not differ in any material respect from the draft approved by the Board of Directors;
- (l) that none of the parties to the Transaction Documents maintains a place of business (as defined in section 4(6) of the Investment Business Act 2003), in Bermuda;
- (m) that there are no charges registered or unregistered against the assets of the Company or against the securities of the Company or other form of impediment which might prevent/affect the giving and honouring of the Plan;
- (n) that each of the Registration Statement, the Plan and other such documentation which was received by electronic mean is complete, intact and in conformity with the transmission as sent; and
- (o) that there are no circumstances affecting the enforceability of the Registration Statement and/or the Plan which has arisen since 25 August 2006, of which we are unaware, which would have any adverse implication in relation to the opinions expressed herein.

5. We have relied on the Certificate as to all representations of fact set out therein and have made no independent investigation and have no knowledge of any fact to the contrary.
6. Based on the foregoing and subject to the reservations set out below and to any matters not disclosed to us, we are of the opinion that:-
 - (a) The Company is an exempted company, duly incorporated and validly existing under the laws of Bermuda.
 - (b) The Shares have been duly authorized, and when issued, delivered and paid for in the manner described in the Plan, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable (meaning as elaborated in paragraph 7(a) below).
7. Our reservations are as follows:-
 - (a) Any reference in this opinion to shares being “non-assessable” shall mean, in relation to fully-paid shares of the Company and subject to any contrary provision in any agreement in writing between the Company and the holder of shares, that no shareholder shall be obliged to contribute further amounts to the capital of the Company, either in order to complete payment for their shares, to satisfy claims of creditors of the Company, or otherwise; and no shareholder shall be bound by an alteration of the Memorandum of Association or Bye-Laws of the Company after the date on which he became a shareholder, if and so far as the alteration requires him to take, or subscribe for additional shares, or in any way increases his liability to contribute to the share capital of, or otherwise to pay money to, the Company.
 - (b) In order to issue this opinion we have carried out the Company Search as referred to above and have not enquired as to whether there has been any change since the date of such search.

- (c) In order to issue this opinion we have carried out the Litigation Search as referred to above and have not enquired as to whether there has been any change since the date of such search.
- (d) Searches of the Register of Companies at the office of the Registrar of Companies and of the Supreme Court Causes Book at the Registry of the Supreme Court are not conclusive and it should be noted that the Register of Companies and the Supreme Court Causes Book do not reveal:
 - i) details of matters which have been lodged for filing or registration which as a matter of best practice of the Registrar of Companies or the Registry of the Supreme Court would have or should have been disclosed on the public file, the Causes Book or the Judgment Book, as the case may be, but for whatever reason have not actually been filed or registered or are not disclosed or which, notwithstanding filing or registration, at the date and time the search is concluded are for whatever reason not disclosed or do not appear on the public file, the Causes Book or Judgment Book;
 - ii) details of matters which should have been lodged for filing or registration at the Registrar of Companies or the Registry of the Supreme Court but have not been lodged for filing or registration at the date the search is concluded;
 - iii) whether an application to the Supreme Court for a winding-up petition or for the appointment of a receiver or manager has been prepared but not yet been presented or has been presented but does not appear in the Causes Book at the date and time the search is concluded;

- iv) whether any arbitration or administrative proceedings are pending or whether any proceedings are threatened, or whether any arbitrator has been appointed; or
- v) whether a receiver or manager has been appointed privately pursuant to the provisions of a debenture or other security, unless notice of the fact has been entered in the Register of Charges in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

Furthermore, in the absence of a statutorily defined system for the registration of charges created by companies incorporated outside Bermuda ("overseas companies") over their assets located in Bermuda, it is not possible to determine definitively from searches of the Register of Charges maintained by the Registrar of Companies in respect of such overseas companies what charges have been registered over any of their assets located in Bermuda or whether any one charge has priority over any other charge over such assets.

- (e) With respect to this opinion we have relied, as to matters of fact, upon statements and representations made to us in the Director's certificate referred to in paragraph 10 of the Schedule to this opinion. We have made no independent verification of the matters referred to in those certificates and we qualify this opinion to the extent that the statements or representations made in those certificates are not accurate in any respect.
8. This opinion is addressed to you solely for your benefit and is neither to be transmitted to any other person, nor relied upon by any other person or for any other purpose nor quoted or referred to in any public document nor filed with any governmental agency or person, without our prior written consent, except as may be required by law or regulatory authority. Further, this opinion speaks as of its date and is strictly limited to the matters stated herein and we assume no obligation to review or update this opinion if applicable law or the existing facts or circumstances should change.

This opinion is governed by and is to be construed in accordance with Bermuda law. It is given on the basis that it will not give rise to any legal proceedings with respect thereto in any jurisdiction other than Bermuda.

We consent to the use of this opinion in, and the filing thereof as an exhibit to, the abovementioned Registration Statement. In giving such consent, we do not hereby admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act or the regulations promulgated thereunder.

Yours faithfully

/s/ Appleby Hunter Bailhache
