Hsinchu, Taiwan—May 21, 2021 - ChipMOS TECHNOLOGIES INC. (“ChipMOS” or the “Company”) (Taiwan Stock Exchange: 8150 and NASDAQ: IMOS), an industry leading provider of outsourced semiconductor assembly and test services (“OSAT”), today announced that it will reschedule its annual shareholders’ meeting scheduled to be held on May 31, 2021 to a date between July 1 and August 31, 2021 in compliance with government policies on the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. This rescheduling has no impact on the Company’s operations, with all facilities operating uninterrupted.

Pursuant to the “Measures for public companies to postpone shareholders’ meetings for pandemic prevention” (the “Measures”) announced by the Financial Supervisory Commission R.O.C. (Taiwan) on May 20, 2021, all public companies in Taiwan are required to suspend the convention of shareholders’ meetings for the period between May 24 and June 30, 2021.

In addition, the Measures require that:

- The shareholders’ meetings of the public companies will be postponed to a date between July 1 and August 31, 2021 as set by the board of directors of such public companies.
- Notice of the postponed shareholders’ meeting will be resent and announced.
- There will be no change to the book closure period, submission period for shareholder proposals, proxy solicitation or electronic voting, which should follow the schedule and methods as originally announced.

Accordingly, the board of directors of the Company will set the annual shareholders’ meeting date pursuant to the Measures. The ADSs holders shall follow the book closure period, submission period for shareholder proposals, proxy solicitation or electronic voting as originally announced.
