ChipMOS Bermuda Announces Changes to Its Board of Directors

Hsinchu, Taiwan, December 21, 2004 –ChipMOS TECHNOLOGIES (Bermuda) LTD. (“ChipMOS” or “the Company”) (Nasdaq: IMOS) announced today that according to information released by the Taipei District Prosecutor’s Office, Mr. Hung-Chiu Hu and Mr. Jwo-Yi Miao, two directors of ChipMOS, have been indicted by the Taipei District Prosecutor’s Office in connection with alleged embezzlement during the late 1990s at Pacific Electric Wire & Cable Co. Ltd., a company incorporated in Taiwan and, until April 28, 2004, listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange. It has also been reported that Mr. Hu has been taken into custody by the Taipei District Prosecutor’s Office in connection with the indictment. In addition, according to the information released by the Taipei District Prosecutor’s Office, Mr. Robert Ma Kam Fook, also a director of ChipMOS, has been implicated in connection with the alleged embezzlement at Pacific Electric Wire & Cable Co. Ltd. Mr. Hu was previously the Chairman of ChipMOS prior to May 19, 2004, and, other than as a director, currently holds no office at ChipMOS. Messrs. Miao and Ma are neither officers nor employees of ChipMOS.

Mr. Ma submitted his resignation from the board of directors of ChipMOS, effective as of December 18, 2004.

At a meeting of the board of directors of ChipMOS on December 21, 2004, the board of directors resolved to accept Mr. Ma’s resignation and to request Messrs. Hu and Miao to resign from the board of directors of ChipMOS.

The board of directors of ChipMOS also removed Messrs. Hu and Miao from their positions on any committees of the board of directors and appointed Mr. Yeong-Her Wang, an independent director, to the audit committee and Mr. Pierre Laflamme, an independent director, to the compensation committee. ChipMOS is currently in the process of identifying additional independent directors to serve on its board of directors.

The board of directors of ChipMOS also established a special investigation committee of independent directors to identify and investigate any past and present dealings between ChipMOS, including its subsidiaries and affiliates, and Messrs. Hu, Miao and Ma and any companies or entities affiliated with any of them. The special investigation committee comprises Messrs. Pierre Laflamme and Yeong-Her Wang, both independent directors, and will be assisted by independent legal and accounting advisors to be selected by the special investigation committee. The special investigation committee will report its findings to the board of directors upon conclusion of the investigation. At this time, the special investigation committee cannot estimate how long the investigation will require nor when it will report its findings to the board of directors.
