Furthermore, the Company has entered a separate private placement transaction through which it expects to raise US$10,000,000. The transactions, subject to customary closing conditions, are expected to close in October 2009. The New Notes will be convertible into common shares of the Company at a conversion price of $1.50 per share, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances, and pay interest at 10.0% per annum. The New Notes pay interest on a quarterly basis. The Company has the option, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, of paying interest and other amounts in common shares or a combination of common shares and cash.

("ThaiLin"), will exchange US$9,000,000 in outstanding 2009 Notes for US$3,150,000 in new convertible notes with a coupon of 10% (the "10% Notes") and US$5,850,000 in new convertible notes with a coupon of 8% (the "8% Notes"), in both cases due 2014.
